Serving religious and community groups across the U.S. and Canada and around the world since 1977
Dear Friends,

We are pleased to present our 2004 – 2005 FaithTrust Institute resource catalog. Inside you will find a wide range of materials designed to help you address the religious issues associated with child abuse, domestic violence, sexual assault, and sexual abuse by clergy.

We are excited to announce several new resources, including:

- God’s Reconciling Love: A Pastor’s Handbook on Domestic Violence
  A new resource for Evangelical Christians offering concrete suggestions for a compassionate Christian response to abuse in the home.

- You Are Not Alone: Solace and Inspiration for Domestic Violence Survivors, Based on Jewish Wisdom
  A critical new book for victims and survivors of domestic violence, and for the rabbis and advocates who work with them.

- Forgiveness and Abuse: Jewish and Christian Reflections
  A powerful exploration of the theological, psychological and ethical aspects of forgiveness in the context of abuse and violation.

- Men’s Work in Preventing Violence Against Women
  This book examines the experiences of 12 practicing counselors who call on their religious training to form partnerships between men and women that promote an end to domestic violence.

- Sexual Abuse in the Catholic Church: Trusting the Clergy?
  This book is a unique collection of credible, diverse voices, and provides a historical marker for the state of the church’s discussion one year after the resignation of Cardinal Bernard Law of the Boston Archdiocese.

You will also find information about several important new resources to be released in the coming months. We trust you will find these materials helpful in your prevention efforts. Working together, we look forward to the day when healing and justice are promoted in every religious community, and when peace is the norm in our homes, our places of worship, and our world.

In partnership,

Working Together to End Sexual and Domestic Violence

FaithTrust Institute, a nonprofit organization, is a multifaith resource working to end sexual and domestic violence. Through training, educational presentations, and multimedia materials, we provide religious communities and advocates with the tools and knowledge they need to address the faith aspects of abuse.

Founded in 1977 by the Rev. Dr. Marie M. Fortune, FaithTrust Institute offers a wide range of services and resources, including training, consultation and educational materials.

Working with All Religions and a Broad Range of Communities to End Abuse

FaithTrust Institute works with many cultures, including Asian and Pacific Islander, African American, Latino/a, and Indigenous. A diverse range of faith communities—including Jewish, Protestant, Roman Catholic, Buddhist, Muslim and Indigenous—utilize our training and resources.

Shine the Light: Sexual Abuse and Healing in the Jewish Community

By Rachel Lev
This is an extraordinary journey into the stories, minds and hearts of adult Jewish survivors of sexual abuse and incest. Rachel Lev, therapist and incest survivor, blends her own experiences with those of other survivors and reflects upon their personal relationships to the Jewish community, which can either encourage denial or be a place of healing. Lev reveals Judaism to be rich in resources for healing as she explores Jewish law, tradition and rituals that include the thoughts of rabbis, community leaders and survivors. A Sacred Trust: Boundary Issues for Clergy and Spiritual Teachers

A Sacred Trust is a program of four training videos and a facilitator’s guide. The goals of the program are to:

- Increase awareness of the need for healthy boundaries in the clergy-congregant or teacher-student relationship;
- Illustrate the impact of appropriate boundaries in promoting effective ministry;
- Provide clergy and teachers with guidelines for developing appropriate boundaries and self-care strategies.

The four videos address:

Part 1: Boundaries, Power and Vulnerability (22 minutes)
Part 2: Dating, Friendships, Dual Relationships, Gifts (23 minutes)
Part 3: The Pulpit, Transference, Hugging and Touch, Intimacy (22 minutes)
Part 4: Personal Needs and Self-Care, Red Flags, Final Reflections (22 minutes)

The accompanying facilitator’s guide includes background information, discussion questions, interactive exercises and audience handouts.

Four videos/89 minutes/Color/2003/Closed-captioned
Also available in PAL format.

“What a wonderful tool to help clergy and teachers reflect on our personal needs and struggles. This series helps us become better pastors and better human beings.”

RABBI MARK DRATCH
Vice-President, Rabbinical Council of America
What experts are saying about the video series, A Sacred Trust

“Intelligently inclusive, ecumenical, interfaith, multiracial, humorous and honest. It’s hard to imagine a more effective and engaging approach to a long-neglected topic in ministry circles. This should be on the ‘required’ list for every religious leader.”

ROBERT M. FRANKLIN
Presidential Distinguished Professor
Candler School of Theology, Emory University

“The priests in my training were impressed with the interfaith aspects of this resource. They found that they were part of a larger ministerial community than they could have ever imagined and recognized much of their own experience in the comments of the speakers from other faith communities.”

REV. ROBERT J. SILVA
President, National Federation of Priests’ Councils

“A Sacred Trust explores boundary issues faced by all spiritual teachers. It is a thoughtful and compassionate inquiry that will well serve those who are serving others. This is a wonderful training tool.”

JOSEPH GOLDSTEIN
Guiding Teacher, Insight Meditation Society, Barre, MA

An essential resource for clergy and spiritual teachers. Designed for Buddhist, Christian and Jewish communities.

In the video series, A Sacred Trust, Ruby Takushi, Ph.D., Psychologist and Jimmy Hurd, Evangelist, Holgate Street Church of Christ

<td>Shine the Light: Sexual Abuse and Healing in the Jewish Community</td>
<td>By Rachel Lev</td>
<td>This is an extraordinary journey into the stories, minds and hearts of adult Jewish survivors of sexual abuse and incest. Rachel Lev, therapist and incest survivor, blends her own experiences with those of other survivors and reflects upon their personal relationships to the Jewish community, which can either encourage denial or be a place of healing. Lev reveals Judaism to be rich in resources for healing as she explores Jewish law, tradition and rituals that include the thoughts of rabbis, community leaders and survivors. The essays explore sexual violence as a weapon of American neocolonialism and white supremacy… The authors explore the deep roots of misogyny in native and imported religious traditions, but they also find in those traditions resources for imagining a different reality. This book is both chilling and hopeful as only prophetic truth-telling can be.”</td>

You Are Not Alone
Solace and Inspiration for Domestic Violence Survivors
Based on Jewish Wisdom

“Toby Landesman….has given a voice to the great resources that Jewish life has to offer those in need. As a rabbi, I value the marvelous tool she has given me through which I can learn and with which I can help others.”
Rabbi Mark Dratch
Rabbinical Council of America

“A critical new book for victims and survivors of domestic violence, and for the rabbis and advocates who work with them.”
