The DVAM 2018 action guide is here!

Why #1Thing? The Domestic Violence Awareness Project Advisory Group came together to develop a unified message for inspiring action. Join us to learn more about how our collective One Things can lead to the social transformation we all desire to see in our communities and the world! Presenters will explore how to integrate the DVAM 2018 #1Thing message into your communications strategies, training activities, and policy-focused initiatives during DVAM 2018 and beyond.

This webinar will mark the official launch of the #1Thing message, offering an opportunity to learn about its purpose and the inspiration behind it, and providing access to free materials and tools to support you in bringing the message to your community.
