

Enhancing Services to Male Survivors Series: Changing the Narrative

Wednesday, June 24, 2020

2pm Eastern, 1pm Central, 11am Pacific

Shame and stigma are devastating for many male victims. Like many female victims of abuse, male victims often fear that their complaints will not be taken seriously or that they will be blamed for the abuse if they tell anyone. Many programs continue to struggle with the idea of making shelter services more gender inclusive. On part I of the Enhancing Services to Male Survivors Series; the presenters will engage in a discussion about Including a gender-conscious philosophical framework for enhanced services to male survivors of domestic violence that links to and builds upon the historical roots of the movement against gender-based violence and is consistent with anti-discrimination laws and related grant conditions.

Speakers:

Emily M. Douglas, PhD Professor/Department Head of Social Science & Policy Studies
Worcester Polytechnic Institute &

Denise A. Hines, Ph.D., Associate Professor George Mason University

Register: https://nrcdv.adobeconnect.com/malesurvivorsp1/event/event\_info.html

For support or questions related to this event, contact Ivonne Ortiz at iortiz@nrcdv.org.

This webinar is supported by Grant Number #90EV0428 from the Administration on Children, Youth and Families, Family and Youth Services Bureau, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. Its contents are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official views of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.