Join storytellers, advocates, and activists as we pivot our intimate partner violence (IPV) prevention work in response to the racial inequities that COVID has laid bare, especially for Black individuals and communities across the country. Explore meaningful relationship building with communities across states, sectors, and social justice movements.

Opportunities for Action

- Leveraging this moment as a call to action to center the experiences, voices & leadership of Black, Indigenous, and People of Color
- Building cross-sector regional partnerships
- Promoting global approaches that reach individuals
- Lifting up storytelling as a prevention tool
- Creating space for ongoing conversations & shared learning
- Promoting a united mission integrating prevention & intervention

This virtual event is free and open to all, offering opportunities to engage with change makers from across the country and leave with concrete action steps, commitments, and measures for accountability to advance our collective work.

The National Resource Center on Domestic Violence and National IPV Prevention Council, in partnership with the Indiana Coalition Against Domestic Violence, the Michigan Coalition to End Domestic and Sexual Violence, and the Ohio Domestic Violence Network, are pleased to host this National Prevention Town Hall, highlighting innovative social change efforts in the East North Central Region.
