

Honoring Survivors' Spiritual Needs: Supporting Jewish, Catholic, and Muslim Survivors of Domestic Violence

September 23, 2020 - 3-4:30pm EST, 2-3:30pm CST, 12-1:30pm PST

For many survivors, spirituality and religious beliefs are an integral part of their healing journey. Through that lens, survivors make sense of their situations, consider their options, and make decisions. As advocates, we must recognize the importance of this influence and should learn ways to provide the support they need while respecting survivors' faith traditions. This webinar will help advocates adopt a faith-sensitive lens and will offer best practices for supporting families who are guided by their faith. Participants will learn how faith can be a resource or a barrier to hope, help, and healing; gain insight into faith-specific understandings; be aware of best practices and resources for engaging faith leaders as allies; and explore strategies for working with faith leaders in their communities.

Presenters:

- Deborah Rosenbloom, Vice President of Programs and New Initiatives for Jewish Women International
- Sharon O'Brien, Co-Founder and Director of Catholics For Family Peace Education and Research Initiative
- Saman Quraeshi, Board of Directors Secretary, Peaceful Families Project

Registration link: nrcdv.adobeconnect.com/spiritualneeds/event/registration.html

For support or questions related to this event, contact Ivonne Ortiz at iortiz@nrcdv.org.

This webinar is supported by Grant Number #90EV0428 from the Administration on Children, Youth and Families, Family and Youth Services Bureau, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. Its contents are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official views of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.