White Board Reflections & Takeaways

Public Chat

Lorien Castelle (She/Her/They/Them): I see so many friends and colleagues and allies on here. It's so lovely to see the participation!

*Casey Keene, NRCDV (she/her/hers): If you're enjoying the music, it's Quarantine Casanova by Chromeo

Mae Healy: Will there be a way to see who is in attendance and their background/credentials for networking purposes? I would love to meet and talk with more people in West Virginia or just others in general. :)

*Casey Keene, NRCDV (she/her/hers): Great idea, @Mae! We can talk internally about staying connected - that was certainly one of our goals with this event!

Kym (she/her/hers): Thanks, Casey. I just caught those lyrics.

Candace Girod (She/Her): @casey ha! I thought it was chromeo, but I'd never heard this song before!

Mae Healy: @Casey - thanks! That would be great.

*Arlene Vassell, NRCDV (she/her/hers): LOVE all the response on the white board!

*Breckan Winters, NRCDV (she/her): Yes! This white board is giving me joy right now!

Sharon Daugherty: Sharon here from Victim Services Branch/Outreach - DC Metropolitan Police Dept.

Lisa Coffman: NRCDV - thank you so much for an informative town hall. I have to drop off, but looking forward to hearing feedback from you and the attendees on the themes and issues discussed.

*Casey Keene, NRCDV (she/her/hers): Thanks, Lisa!

Susan M Davis: How do we write on the white board?

*Ivonne Ortiz, NRCDV (She, her, hers): Click on view options at the top of your screen, then click on annotate.

Lorien Castelle (She/Her/They/Them): Thank you, Timike and Cecily. Really great sharing from you two.

*Arlene Vassell, NRCDV (she/her/hers): "Caring for myself is not self-indulgence, it is self-preservation, and that is an act of political warfare." -Audre Lorde

*Arlene Vassell, NRCDV (she/her/hers): Great selection, Ivonne! Love this song.

Renisha Udorji: thx @Arlene for that quote

*Arlene Vassell, NRCDV (she/her/hers): You're welcome Renisha! :-)

Lorien Castelle (She/Her/They/Them): Yes! Love that quote!

*Arlene Vassell, NRCDV (she/her/hers): Hi Lorien! :-)

*Rebecca Cline, ODVN, she/her/hers: Hi Lorien!

*Breckan Winters, NRCDV (she/her): I hope everyone has had a great break, we'll be coming back together around 3:30 EST. As a reminder, you can find the agenda for today's event here:

*Timike Jones, ICADV, (she, her, hers): Thanks!

Kathryn Strangolagalli (she/her/hers): Thank you Joe!

*Justine Robillard, NRCDV (she/her/hers): Hahaha, I started clapping on my own with you and then looked around and realized that I am clapping alone in a room on mute

Deb DeBare: You all are doing a great job with the technology, etc!

Robyn Glasser: I agree! Great job!

Kye Campbell-Fox (he/him), HAVEN: Typing kept getting interrupted, but from session C, taking examples of men interrupting men's violence against men and applying it to interrupting violence against women

Lorien Castelle (She/Her/They/Them): Hey, Kathy Moore!

*Kathy Moore, NRCDV (she, her, hers): Howdy Lorien!!

Kalimah Johnson, LMSW (she, hers): Join me here in the chat and let's write a poem...

Heidi Notario: Yay, Kalimah! xo

Kalimah Johnson, LMSW (she, hers): Self Care is essential...

Kalimah Johnson, LMSW (she, hers): Hey Heidi!!!!

Kalimah Johnson, LMSW (she, hers): First line:

Vivian (she/her/hers): First line: When we cover the earth with our stories, bird song lifts our voices

Sarah Khan: Hi Heidi!!!

Rus Funk (Z, Zis/he, his): ...to the skies above and beyond, where others can hear our voices but not know from where they come

Vivian (she/her/hers): line 3: the beat from our grandmothers' drums echoes our hearts, always all knowing but a mystery sometimes to us

Vivian (she/her/hers): while we wait join in the poetry Kalimah suggested. we need line 4

*Ivonne Ortiz, NRCDV (She, her, hers): Yes, share some songs.

Deborah Svoboda: Higher Ground (Stevie Wonder) Playing for Change

Deborah Svoboda: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3hGSqgghokE>
