Alana Brown: Where their method or cohorts for Black American survivors or is that population not part of ID? I mean separate from "POC" cohort?

Breckan Winters (she/her/hers): Great question, Alana! We'll share it with the presenters

Alana Brown: Thank you!

Stasi Brown: We participants be able to have access to the slides after the presentation?

Breckan Winters (she/her/hers): Yes, the slides, recording, and additional materials will be available here on VAWnet: <https://vawnet.org/material/webinar-re-centering-indianas-movement-ground-domestic-violence-programs-survivor-defined>

Stasi Brown: Thank you!

Katie Wade: WOW. That's a good and powerful question.

Breckan Winters (she/her/hers): Yes!!

Breckan Winters (she/her/hers): Feel free to share any additional questions for presenters here in the chat!

Mei Hung: The visual/picture captures the coding process! Thank you!

Breckan Winters (she/her/hers): Share here in the chat - what do you think survivors said?

Ivonne Ortiz: Access to other services, safe housing

Morgan Dewey: language access

Mei Hung: survivors want the support while figuring out leaving or even choosing to stay. "I would like to receive support even if staying with abuser."

Ivonne Ortiz: Yes, Mei!

Morgan Dewey: direct service organizations that talk to one another instead of being siloed and forcing survivors to lay out their trauma and needs over and over again

Breckan Winters (she/her/hers): yes, Morgan!!

Breckan Winters (she/her/hers): Thanks for sharing, all!

Mei Hung: more support after leaving emergency shelter, like housing, rent support, resources for helping build a new life etc.

Breckan Winters (she/her/hers): You can learn more about the intersections between safe, stable housing and DV/SV from Safe Housing Partnerships: <https://safehousingpartnerships.org/>

Breckan Winters (she/her/hers): Be sure to share questions here in the chat!

Breckan Winters (she/her/hers): You can access the full Re-Centering report and supplementary materials from ICADV's website: <https://icadvinc.org/movement/>

Katie Wade: Question! Would be really interested to hear any anecdotes you can share about how survivors defined safety. What characteristics do they identify in agencies/orgs/advocates that make them feel safe?

Breckan Winters (she/her/hers): Thanks for your question, Katie! We'll share it with the presenters :)

Breckan Winters (she/her/hers): We have about 15 minutes remaining in the webinar. Be sure to share any additional questions in the time remaining!

Alana Brown: Can you speak more to what you found about survivors Community Accountability?

Breckan Winters (she/her/hers): Great question, Alana! We'll share that with the presenters

Alana Brown: **Let me clarify- what community accountabilities programs did survivors want to see?

Breckan Winters (she/her/hers): Thanks for clarifying :)

Breckan Winters (she/her/hers): Thanks so much for joining us this afternoon, everyone! Be sure to share any last minute questions/comments for presenters here

Breckan Winters (she/her/hers): A recording and the webinar slides will be available on VAWnet.org: <https://vawnet.org/material/webinar-re-centering-indianas-movement-ground-domestic-violence-programs-survivor-defined>

Sam Harrell (they/them): <https://transformharm.org/> is a great starting place for learning about community-based accountability systems

Katie Wade: Love love love this. Aggressively scribbling notes. Thank you so much!

Alana Brown: Thank you!!

Dione Bassett 2: Really, really excellent! Thank you

Breckan Winters (she/her/hers): Thank you for joining today's session! Please be sure to respond to our brief survey upon logging out.

Rose Marie Vergara 2: Thank you--such a great presentation, so informative, & great details!

Katie Wade: Totes, Sam! I heard something on a webinar recently that was like "We think these are the only options we have but the reality is they're just the options that are funded."

Sam Harrell (they/them): yes!!

Casey Keene: You have offered SO MUCH to us - thank you!!

Loyda Hernandez: Yes! Thank you so much

Dione Bassett 2: Makes total sense! Thank you both

Michelle Blackman: Thank you!

Breckan Winters (she/her/hers): Thanks so much for joining us today, everyone!
