

National Call for Unity

No Survivor Justice
Without Racial Justice
Cultivating Joy Towards Liberation

NRCDV will host the National Call for Unity to kick off Domestic Violence Awareness Month 2022 on September 30th, 2022 at 2pm Eastern / 11am Pacific.

This year's call centers on the theme for DVAM 2022, No Survivor Justice Without Racial Justice: Cultivating Joy Towards Liberation. The Call for Unity is centered around our collective liberation, each of us "being the work" to authentically respond to survivors' and advocates' call for justice, healing and equity. Through inspiring messages, the speakers will share their personal experiences in the movement in order to humanize the work of advocates who contribute daily to the efforts to end domestic violence.

Featuring survivor speakers:

ANA WILLIAMS

SHAWNICE STRATFORD

Join us as we come together in solidarity with survivors, advocates, and partners from national, state and community-based organizations to kick off Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

Register at: <https://bit.ly/3E0IOF7>