

National Resource Center on Domestic Violence

GOVERNMENT DATABASES/PORTALS

This page offers a listing of databases/portals that provide free and easy access to United States Federal government funding information and information on United States Federal, state, and local government transactions, resources, and services.

Grants.gov

<http://www.Grants.gov>

Grants.gov is the official grants website for all Federal agencies. Organizations and individuals can locate and apply for competitive grant opportunities offered by the 26 Federal grant-making agencies. Grant opportunities notices via email and/or RSS feed is available as well as links to grant application packages, grant updates, proposal writing information, user guides, and tutorials. The Contact Center is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week to provide technical assistance.

Email support: support@grants.gov

Phone support: 1-800-518-4726

Self-help portal: <http://www.grants.gov/iportal>

Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA)

<https://www.cfda.gov/?s=main&mode=list&tab=list&tabmode=list>

The Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA) profiles all Federal grant programs, projects, services, and activities that provide assistance or benefits to the American public.

FDsys: GPO's Federal Digital System

<http://www.gpo.gov/fdsys/search/home.action>

FDsys provides free online access to official Federal Government publications. Through FDsys, individuals are able to search or browse for documents and publications, access metadata about documents and publications, and download documents and publications in multiple renditions or file formats. The featured collections include:

- Code of Federal Regulations
- Compilation of Presidential Documents
- Congressional Bills
- Congressional Documents
- Congressional Hearings
- Congressional Record
- Congressional Reports
- Economic Indicators
- Federal Register
- Public and Private Laws
- United States Code

Benefits.gov

<http://www.benefits.gov/>

Benefits.gov provides citizens with easy, online access to government benefit and assistance programs. The site's core function is the confidential eligibility prescreening questionnaire. Eligibility criteria for more than 1,000 Federally-funded benefit and assistance programs is gathered from the questionnaire. Each program description provides citizens with the next steps to apply for any benefit program of interest. The website is available in both English and Spanish.

SBA.gov

<http://www.sba.gov/>

SBA.gov is the portal into the U.S. Small Business Administration. Resources on starting and managing a business, loans and grants, contracting, and counseling and training are available on the website.

FedBizOpps.gov

<https://www.fbo.gov/>

FedBizOpps is the official free online listing of Government contracting opportunities which are published at the Federal Business Opportunities site. Information available on the site includes: solicitation number, description of requirement, due date for receipt of offers, set-aside status, contact information, subcontracting opportunities, potential sources sought, business news, surplus property sales, and foreign government standards.